Aidan O'Brien has managed to win this three times the past decade and can do so once more courtesy of RIVER TIBER (17) who is a twice-raced son of Wootton Bassett. Created a huge impression winning by 10L on debut at Navan and backed that up with a smooth success at Naas last month. Emphatic wide-margin Ripon debut winner ASADNA (3) looks the strongest of the home contingent while ARMY ETHOS (2) is of note after a victory at Ayr when debuting. PADDINGTON (8) bared down on his rivals to land the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas at the Curragh 24 days ago. The progressive son of Siyouni could have plenty more to give and provide Aidan O'Brien with a staggering ninth win in this race. A main danger looks to be CHALDEAN (1) who is trained by Andrew Balding and is now five from seven in his career after an impressive success in the G1 English 2000 Guineas at Newmarket last week. Cannot be discounted lightly. Unexposed CICERO'S GIFT (3) created an impression winning a Goodwood conditions event and warrants thought. ROYAL SCOTSMAN (9) would be interesting if bouncing back to form shown when third behind the second mentioned in the Guineas while MOSTABSHIR (7) remains very exciting.

Ian Williams has won this twice the past four years and LAW OF THE SEA (17) could be worth siding with at the prices. This lightly-raced five-year-old caught the eye when fourth in the Chester Cup on his stable debut. Probably found the smaller field against him when a narrow second at Haydock so returning to a big-field scenario could suit and might go close back up in trip. With a smoother passage NOVEL LEGEND (15) arguably would have beaten ZINC WHITE (20) in the consolation race at Chester. Both cannot be left out of the equation. Willie Mullins maintains an exceptional record in this contest. His entry BRING ON THE NIGHT (5) hasn't been seen finishing runner-up to current Ascot Gold Cup favourite Coltrane in this last year however is sure to prove popular at the head of the market.

First-time cheekpieces looked to work for CADILLAC (6) when finding success in the competitive 2000m Epsom handicap on Derby Day. Held some high-class form for previous connections at three and if headgear has the desired effect a bold bid can be anticipated. John and Thady Gosden maintain a strong hand courtesy of SAGA (14) and FRANCESCO CLEMENTE (9) with the former missing narrowly in a competitive handicap at Newmarket on his first outing since being gelded. Might go well. The latter was unlucky not to beat KING OF CONQUEST (3) at Goodwood last time out and must be considered wearing first-time cheekpieces while the third noted showed a likeable attitude that day and could be thereabouts alongside BUCKAROO (1).

COPPER HORSE HANDICAP

FLAT TURF Participants #19

VAUBAN (7) last ran on the flat in France as a three-year-old. Trained by Willie Mullins this smart hurdler chased home State Man in the G1 Paddy Power Champion Hurdle at Punchestown. Looks well-treated and can make a winning return to the flat with Ryan Moore booked. Stablemate ABSURDE (8) scored at Killarney delivering hurdle and yard debut. Looks a fascinating contender based on his French flat form. RULING DYNASTY (14) impressed winning a Haydock novice event on reappearance and could be in the mix-up in distance on the initial handicap outing. POINT KING (4) brings proven form tackling the trip and needs to be considered now handicapping after a short-head second in the G3 Levmoos Stakes while POSTILEO (13) may feature.
