RAF'S ROCKET (5) caught the eye on debut over this distance on the turf last start. He lost a length at the start, took time to find his feet but finished off his race well to run fifth. He would have gained from the experience and if suited to the polytrack should prove hard to beat. PARIS RAIN (4) should have won his last start over 1600m on the turf as he hung over the closing stages. He drops back in distance and the blinkers will sharpen him up. Has each-way claims. ZABADAK (1) is yet to break through after six career starts. Finished third two starts back before finishing seventh over 1600m. Has place prospects. ONE IRISH ROVER (8) is yet to break through in nine runs. Finished seventh last start over 1200m and finds a suitable assignment this time and can improve. Include in exotic bets.

UNITED WE STAND (6) stayed on well at the finish over 1200m last start but found one too good on the day. She will relish the rise to 1400m and will be at peak fitness. If suited to this surface should prove hard to beat. TELIO (7) has some fair recent form lines to her credit. She may be a better horse on the turf but in this field she is one of the leading chances. STEALTH ATTACK (5) is better than her last start run would suggest. Her form prior to that outing was consistent and if putting her best foot forward should be figuring in the finish. BABY ON BOARD (1) showed some improvement in her last start over 1000m to finish fifth. The manner in which she finished off that outing suggests that she will relish the rise to 1400m. DUKE OF AFRICA (1) has fair recent form lines to his credit. He finished third in his only course and distance and if not in need of the run should figure in the finish. She is racing back against her own sex and looks well placed to notch up her third career victory. HATTA (9) won a good race in her last start over 1600m on this course. She has won once, finished second once and third four times from seven starts over this course and distance. She races well for apprentice Siphesihle Hlengwa and warrants healthy respect. GIMME A LULLABY (2) turned in a decent effort last start to finish third over 1400m at this track after racing up on the speed. Has the talent to figure prominently. TIME TO THE MOON (1) is fresh from a win by half a length last time out. Will settle back early but will be coming home strongly over the final stages. Has each-way claims.

BLUSH OF DAWN (9) raced from a handy position over 1200m last time out but found one too good on the day. She takes a drop in class and with a bit of luck in the running from her draw of nine should be right there at the finish. BIRDWATCHER (8) has good consistent form lines to her credit. She has won twice, finished second six times and third four times from 17 starts over this course and distance. Has each-way claims. SHE'S NOT EASY (3) is better than her last start over this course and distance looks on paper. On her previous form she should have a say in the outcome of this event. BELL STARBUSTER (1) may not have seen out the 1800m last time. She returns from a spell which may have done her the world of good. On her best form shown she can place from pole position.

EL DANTE (4) followed up his penultimate victory with a good third-place finish over 1750m last start. He set the pace that day but was caught in the shadow of the post. He should have no issues dropping back in distance and if not in need of the run should run a big race. IMMEASURABLE (2) raced from a handy position over this course and distance last time but found one too good on the day. He meets similar company here and from his good draw of two should be right there at the finish. GIAMBATTISTA (1) finished third last start over 1200m when sent out at long odds. He has dropped to a competitive rating and from pole position has each-way claims. GRANDE LUPO (10) set the pace over 1200m last time out and stayed on well to finish third. Keagan de Melo retains the ride and the combination should be figuring in the top-three.

QUESTOR (4) should have won his last start over 1400m on this course as he hung over the closing stages. He made a promising debut effort to finish second over this course and distance two starts back. S'manga Khumalo is back in the saddle and this colt rates as the runner to beat. ARTURO (1) is making his racing debut, he is trained by Alan Greeff and has Richard Fourie in the saddle. If not too green he should start his career on a positive note. FUTURE AFRICA (3) is a two-year-old colt who is having his first start, he is trained by Sharon Kotzen stable and has Luyolo Mxothwa in the saddle. AMAZING COLOURS (2) has produced three good runs to date. She showed good pace over 1200m last time when sent out as the favourite, fought hard but found one too good on the day. It must be noted that the horse that finished third that day has come out and won since. She tries the 1400m for the first time and if seeing out the extra distance on offer should be the horse to beat. SAVIC (9) is racing in strong form, she tries the 1400m for the first time and should be competitive. STAGE PLAY (10) fought hard in her last start but found one too good on the day. Well worth an each-way ticket based on that last run. EXCLUSIVELY YOURS (4) ran a fair race to finish fourth in her last start over this distance on the polytrack. If repeating that effort in this field she can finish in the placings. Include in combinations.

WOODLAND RIDGE (1) ran a fair race when finishing third in his last start over 1200m on this course. He tries the 1400m for the first time but is drawn widest of all which is an obvious concern. With a bit of luck in the running he can shed his maiden tag in this line-up. WESTERN JACK (10) should have finished closer to the winner last time as he was unbalanced at the 150m mark. He would have come on from the run and should strip much fitter. Richard Fourie steps back into the saddle and should be finishing in the top-three. OPENING CEREMONY (7) is better than his last start run for eighth over 2400m would suggest. It must be noted that the horse that finished second that day has come out and won since. He drops back in distance and on best form shown should be figuring in the finish. ELUSIVE JUSTICE (3) resumes from a spell and is having his first run for the Kelly Mitchley stable. He steps up to 1400m and if settled into his new surroundings should show improvement.

KHAYA'S HOPE (2) is a winner of his last four starts. He returns from a well-deserved spell which would have done him the world of good. He has won three times and finished second once from as many starts over this course and distance. He takes on older rivals today but he has class and should be well up to the task at hand. INHERIT THE RAIN (3) has some decent recent form lines to his credit. He was running on well when finishing third over 1200m on the polytrack last time. Richard Fourie retains the ride and the pair merit healthy respect. SILVER FALCON (6) was an easy winner of his last start over 1250m when resuming from a spell. Two of his four career victories have come over this distance. Has each-way claims. BUSH TRACKER (5) has won his last two starts with ease. GET IT DONE (9) should have won her last start as she hung over the closing stages. She is having her peak run today and should be cherry-ripe. She is better suited to a longer distance but in this field she can go one place better than last start if keeping on a straight line. SILVERY BLUE (5) has consistent form lines to her credit. She rallied late when finishing second over 1200m on this course last time. Raymond Danielson takes the ride and he may be able to coax that little bit extra out of her when it matters most. VENUS DE MILO (8) showed some signs of a form return in her last start over this distance. She is likely to be switched off near the rear of the field from her wide draw and will be storming home late. ANGELSEA (13) has finished fourth in her last three starts. PHEDRA (3) is better than her last start run for fifth would suggest as her jockey reported something to be amiss. She has won three times and finished second once from five starts over this course and distance. If putting her best foot forward she can notch up her seventh career victory. CIVIL RIGHTS (4) was an easy winner of her last start over this distance on the polytrack when resuming from a spell. She has won once and finished second twice from four starts over this course and distance. Has solid each-way claims. RED BERRY (2) stayed on well when finishing second over 1200m on this course last time. Richard Fourie retains the ride and she will be storming home late. HUNTING TRIP (9) is a winner of her last two starts under JP van der Merwe. Rates highly in this line-up and can notch-up the hat-trick.

SPYDAS CORNER (3) is having his first run for the Cliffee Miller stable. He has won three times and finished second four times from nine starts over this distance. He continues to drop in the ratings and if suited to this course should prove hard to beat. VARIETY BREEZE (11) has not finished too far off the winner in recent outings. She raced from just off the pace over this distance on the polytrack last time but found one too good on the day. The 5yo mare should give the males a run for their money. Include in exotic bets. LEDELL'S ECHO (8) resumed from a spell last start and showed good speed when finishing second over this distance on the polytrack. He has won once, finished second three times and third once from seven starts over this distance. He will strip much fitter and may prove hard to peg back. ANGEL DEB'S (9) was an easy winner of her last start over 1200m on this course. She has won once, finished second twice and third once from five starts over this course and distance.
