4RACING WELCOMES YOU MAIDEN JUVENIL...

FLAT TURF Participants #9

MK'S DREAMS (6) produced a promising debut effort to finish second over this course and distance last start. He should have finished closer to the winner that day as he hung over the final 200m. He would have gained from the experience and with the natural improvement that is expected should be hard to beat. ETHANATOR (1) ran a fair race on debut to finish fifth against winners over this course and distance. With the natural progression that is expected, he should be one of the leading chances. MAJOR PLAYER (3) is an unraced son of Pomodoro from the Sean Tarry stable with Keagan de Melo in the saddle. If not too green he should start his career on a positive note. The betting market will be the best guide with regards to his chances. GOLDEN PAVILION (2) was solid on debut last start when finishing fifth over 1100m at Vaal on April 20. Shapes as one to consider including in exotic bets.

MARY'S GREENLIGHT (5) stayed on at the finish over 1200m on the Inside course last time but found one too good on the day. Resumes from a spell and she would have strengthened up during her time off the track. She looks to have ability and looks well placed in this line-up to lose her maiden tag shed her maiden tag. LADY ELLIOT (4) stepped out for her debut over 1200m at Turffontein Inside back on April 4 and finished fifth, beaten 5 lengths. Resumes from a spell and should progress this time and is expected to feature. STRIKING ANGEL (8) ran a decent race on debut to finish second over this course and distance against winners last start. She would have gained from the experience and should make the natural improvement to go close to winning. RAIN IN TRIPOLI (7) is a two-year-old filly on debut by Trippi from Imvula who profiles nicely for this. Market watch is advised.

JOKER MAN (3) ran a decent race on debut to finish third over this distance on the Vaal Classic course. He raced from just off the pace and stayed on well at the business end. He would have gained from the experience and with Keagan de Melo in the saddle he should make the natural improvement needed. NEERAH (7) took time to find her feet on debut, but the manner in which she stayed on at the finish to run fourth was encouraging. She would have come on from the run and should give the males a run for their money. VIVA SPIRIT (6) is an unraced son of Erupt from the Johan Janse van Vuuren stable with Gavin Lerena in the saddle. If not too green, he should start his career on a positive note. The betting market will be the best guide with regards to his chances. STATESMAN (5) has not raced since being well supported on his debut when he finished seventh over 1000m when well supported. Open to improvement and can feature.

BLESS MY STARS (2) raced from a handy position last time, but found one too good on the day. Handy filly who is racing well and rates as a key runner in this line-up. FEATHER BOA (1) moved up like a winner last time but was outrun late to finish second. It must be noted that the horse that finished third that day has come out and won since. Sure to prove hard to beat. RENY (3) resumes from a spell. She should have finished closer to the winner last time as she hung over the final 200m. She has won previously when produced fresh-up and on that score has solid winning claims. EMERALD PRINCESS (6) was out of the money two runs back then again missed the frame last start over 1600m at Turffontein Inside, beaten 4.5 lengths into fourth. PLATINA PRINCESS (4) was super-impressive when winning her last start over 1450m on the Inside course. She raced from a handy position, quickened up well and won with a plenty left in the tank. Looks hard to beat. COLORADO CREEK (3) quickened up well when winning her last start over 1160m on this course. She does take on stronger rivals but looks to have ability and should be up to the task at hand. QUEEN OF CAMELOT (5) scored two back at Vaal then just missed last time when finishing second over 1450m at Turffontein Inside. Has solid each-way claims. WHITE PEARL (7) fought on well to win her last start over 1450m on the Inside course. FIRE 'N FLAMES (1) should have finished closer to the winner last start as he had to switch ground in the latter stages. The son of Fire Away is versatile and with luck from his awkward draw of eight, he can notch up his third career victory. PURE PREDATOR (3) should have finished closer than fourth last start as he was denied racing room over the latter stages. It must be noted that the winner of that race has come out and won since. He should love the rise to 1400m and he merits healthy respect. MAX THE MAGICIAN (2) followed up his maiden win with an equally impressive victory over 1600m on this course. He does face his toughest test, but he looks to be above average and should be well up to the task at hand. FRENCH IMPACT (5) won well when shedding his maiden tag over 1450m on the Inside course last time. SPRING IN HEAVEN (9) is a 2yo filly taking on older rivals. She has fair recent form lines to her name, the last two of which have been against winners. She is bred to enjoy the rise to 1800m and with just 55kgs on her back, she should prove hard to beat. PINK DIAMOND (3) fought hard in her last start, but found one too good on the day. The step up to 1800m is a slight concern, but in this type of field, she should go close to winning. Has each-way claims. IDABELLE (1) was a slightly disappointing in her last start over this distance on the Vaal Classic course when finishing fifth. Her penultimate run when finishing second over 1600m on the Inside course catches the eye. If putting her best foot forward she should be figuring in the finish. IMPRESSION (2) has finished second twice from three starts over this distance. Keagan de Melo retains the ride and she can finish in the placings. Include in exotic bets.

PUERTO MANZANO (1) was given a gun ride when winning last time. It must be noted that the horse that finished third that day has come out and won since. He is unbeaten from two starts over this course and distance. Best form puts him right in this. JIMMY DON (2) has good consistent form lines to his credit. He finished second over this course and distance in his penultimate run. The son of Pathfork jumps from pole position and is one of the leading contenders. PYROMANIAC (5) resumed from a spell last start and should have finished closer to the winner as he jumped a shadow at the 400m mark. Genuine galloper and is worth thought. WHAFEEF (3) is a winner of his last two starts on this course. He tries the 1800m for the first time and if seeing out the extra distance on offer, he can finish in the placings.

MANZ KNIGHT (5) was slowly into stride when finishing fifth last start. If not too far out of his ground turning for home, he can shed his maiden tag. BROADWAY (4) has finished third in his last three starts over 1600m. The manner in which he finishes off his races suggests that he will relish the rise to 1800m. Has solid each-way claims. CELTIC RUSH (2) ran a fair race to finish third over 1600m on this course last time. With Gavin Lerena in the saddle he can't be ignored.
