Wesley Joyce (1.5kg) negates the majority of weight rise WANNABE BRAVE (3) received for winning tackling the trip at Wolverhampton last month. Runner-up that day FURTHER MEASURE (4) also commands respect now armed with a small swing in the weights. PFINGSTBERG (6) makes for plenty of each-way appeal.

DAPHNE MAY (1) was a disappointing sixth when well-backed over 2000m at Windsor. It could pay to give her another chance as this represents a sizeable drop in trip and is too well-handicapped to ignore with Anna Gibson now back on board taking off 3.5kg. MAGIC GEM (6) commands respect on the back of finishing second over 1200m at Newcastle upon return. HEERATHETRACK (5) cannot be ruled out after a pleasing fourth tackling track and trip. BLUEBELLS BOY (8) might find the frame.

NATZOR (1) picked up well when asked to put 1.5L between himself and LUDO'S LANDING (3) tackling this trip at Newcastle eleven days ago. The former remains unexposed for his new trainer David O'Meara and could well follow up under a penalty while the latter requires the utmost respect once more. PHOTON (2) might prove the biggest danger following back-to-back runner-up efforts over 1700m and 1900m at Wolverhampton. Three-time course winner BOASTY (6) often goes well here as was the case when third tackling 1600m recently.
