The Ralph Beckett trained ORIGINAL OUTLAW (7) was a noted purchase from the Tattersalls 2023 October Yearling Sale Book 1 sale. Could make a winning debut. THE FLYING SEAGULL (10) looks a major contender on the back of his pleasing debut third over 1200m at Chester. RED SAND (8) finished runner-up at Bath (1000m) first up. Might go well now raised in distance. Nicely-bred newcomer BERKSHIRE KAMEO (3) needs to be included.

The progressive MANXMAN (7) went down narrowly over 2800m here on first outing following eight months off. Stepping back up to 3200m will suit. Might return to winning ways. MAXIDENT (6) showed up well finishing third over course and distance and could be in the mix. Fourth-placed PLUS POINT (9) was probably a touch below-par that day. Cannot be ruled out having run well managing a third at Musselburgh prior. HAVAILA (10) finished runner-up tackling that track and trip handicap. Respect racing from foot of the weights. Plenty of Roger Varian trained horses have been needing their first run this season and that looked the case with YA HAFHD (8) who finished second at Doncaster on handicap debut. Stepping up to 2400m might bring about further improvement. Top weight filly DIVINA GRACE (1) races for trainer Rae Guest.
