FINE MARGIN (2) has found the frame twice from seven hurdle outings including when second in a Haydock G3 three-runs ago. Combination of grade and heavy conditions along with easing in trip might be enough to see him get off the mark. Stable debutant BLESS THE MOON (5) returns to action following a succession of point-to-point efforts. Could make her presence felt racing for a yard in decent form. OVAL STREET (4) and ON THE NOSE (6) may place. Watch for any market moves.

MISTER UPTON (5) delivered an impressive 9L chasing debut victory over course and distance earlier this month. The Chris Gordon trained gelding remains realistically treated off a 3.5kg higher mark. May prove capable of following up at the chief expense of CALL OFF THE DOGS (3) who recorded his second success here tackling shorter ten-days ago and is an obvious danger. HIDALGO DES BORDES (1) was a penultimate start winner at Exeter. Disappointed next time when odds-on favourite at Warwick. Could bounce back with a big run. NATIVE MOON (2) has made gradual progress among maiden hurdle company and pedigree suggests this longer trip will suit. Big player on handicap debut. The lightly-raced LADY MENDOZA (3) was an encouraging second at Musselburgh in November. Absent since but clearly possesses talent to get involved (also declared on Saturday). Top weight MY MONTY (1) remains a maiden after nine outings. Latest Warwick fourth was no disgrace. Dropped in weight since. RELEASE THE KRAKEN (4) has been struggling for form recently. Fallen a long way in ratings as a result.
