The drop back to 1400m could see SHAW PARK (2) go one better than when beaten late over 1600m at this venue just four days ago. Bottom weight and course regular HEER'S SADIE (5) followed up a recent track and trip handicap success with a good third here four weeks ago. Thereabouts. TEA SEA (1) represents a stable that excels with its runners at this venue. Must be considered upon return from 168 days off. Market support for BISHOP'S GLORY (3) is to be noted.

UNION ISLAND (3) holds two pieces of standout form as a two-year-old. That could make him tough to beat on seasonal return. The Charlie Johnston trained gelding chased home a very talented horse when debuting last season and despite some moderate efforts subsequently is considered. ZING UP (12) showed up well for a long way when fourth over 1000m at Windsor on her first start for seven months. The Tom Ward trained filly may strip fitter for the outing and seemingly holds leading claims down to a classified event. Fifth that day NEPTUNE LEGEND (10) could be thereabouts dropping to this level. MIDNIGHT FLAME (8) also makes for plenty of appeal having followed home a thriving rival when third over course and distance on penultimate outing. MINTANA (9) might find the frame.

1 ADMIRABLE LAD

FLAT TURF GOOD FIRM Participants #10

JOHNJAY (1) went well both starts at this track and looks well-poised for a return to winning ways following a good second over 1600m at Newbury. Consider ahead of last-time-out Brighton (1600m) winner RIVAS ROB ROY (7) who is raised 1kg in the weights. OWER STARLIGHT (9) did well to finish third over course and distance last month. May prove competitive once more. RAVENGLASS (2) would hold claims if replicating form shown finishing a solid runner-up attempting 1600m here on his penultimate start.
