GEO (4) shaped as though she would come on for the experience when fourth tackling track and trip debuting last month. May come out on top here. QUEUE DOS (9) holds major claims back among this company after finishing sixth in the Listed Empress Stakes at Newmarket. CASTRO AURUM (1) is also considered.

Charlie Appleby won this twelve months ago and he can do so once more with ANCIENT WISDOM (1) who last year won the soft-ground G1 Futurity Trophy and ran well behind a potentially top-class horse in the G2 Dante Stakes before finishing midfield in the G1 Epsom Derby. Could appreciate stretching out in distance. The unexposed SPACE LEGEND (5) produced a good effort finishing runner-up behind an exciting prospect attempting the G2 King Edward VII Stakes at Royal Ascot. Respect. ROYAL SUPREMACY (4) ran third that day and might also enjoy going up in trip. PORTLAND (3) rates next best.

Royal Ascot form could come to the fore here though it will be interesting to see which of the juveniles finishes on top with all three contenders competing in different contests at the royal meeting. WHISTLEJACKET (6) finished fourth in the G2 Norfolk Stakes. Step up to 1200m is expected to bring about improvement and with trainer Aidan O'Brien could be the one to beat. FLAT TURF SOFT Participants #10

A competitive event where it could pay to side with twice-raced handicap debutant FIFTY NIFTY (8). The Tom Clover trained gelding looked good scoring on debut at Yarmouth. Not disgraced in a novice event under a penalty at Doncaster last time and this opening mark could prove workable. TWIRLING (4) scored at Doncaster (1600m) before running below-par in a fierce Royal Ascot handicap. URBAN SPRAWL (6) may go well fresh and cannot be ignored on first outing since finishing third over 1600m at Kempton in December. STERLING KNIGHT (5) looks interesting tackling this trip for the first time on softer ground.
