The William Haggas trained BANTZ (1) can go one better than when second over 1000m at Wolverhampton last time. Consider. Trainer Kevin Ryan has introduced a few nice juveniles this season and his newcomer CAUSIN A COMMOTION (3) commands respect. KITTEN IN THE SKY (7) may build on her promising debut runner-up effort tackling 1000m at Catterick. MUSIC HISTORY (5) is not to be discounted.

Following two promising efforts to date MEGALITHIC (4) can get off the mark. The Ralph Beckett trained colt followed home a nice performer in a conditions event at Epsom (1200m) earlier in the month and is preferred to BOUNTIFUL (1) who carries a penalty for winning over 1000m at Thirsk delivering her second outing. Mehmas debutant CASHLYN CAVALIER (2) looks nicely-bred and rates highly for a stable going well at present with their two-year-olds. SHAMAL WIND (5) could show more second-time-out.

Both GALLANT LION (3) and BORN RULER (4) were denied a run when fourth and second respectively over 2000m at Sandown recently and that looks key form to follow. The former was particularly unlucky and could make amends off the same mark and while the latter didn't seem entirely straightforward under pressure once in the clear could give a good account once more. Comfortable last-time-out Beverley (2000m) winner LUDO'S LANDING (8) must be respected. Unexposed SEA THE THUNDER (11) is of interest now back down slightly in trip.

This looks a good opportunity for JABAARA (1) to follow up her recent victory among Listed company over 1400m at Musselburgh. The Roger Varian-trained three-year-old sets a clear standard on paper and could take some beating. NAVASSA ISLAND (7) went well when third in this grade over 1100m at Cork during May. This could be run at a decent tempo and might set up nicely for HIGHWAYGREY (8). Headed late when second over 1800m here sixteen days ago and is considered dropping in trip receiving a nice draw in stall five. GUARD DUTY (1) finished fourth in a competitive thirteen runner maiden hurdle at Ffos Las when last seen. Winning prospect if replicating that performance. TRUDIE GLEN (11) started the new campaign with a second at Southwell. Found things tougher over a longer distance at Market Rasen subsequently. Drops back in trip with a better chance. AUTHOCELATIC (6) was a solid sixth in a handicap hurdle last time. More experienced than others. Place. THINK FIRST (9) rates each way revisiting hurdles. Second hurdling when last seen in December. ASSAIL (1) won on penultimate run at Wolverhampton. Only just held delivering follow-up attempt at Southwell and returns to action from a five-month break. In the mix. CAUSTIC (2) did not see out the extended journey on Doncaster reappearance. Might go well back down in trip. Any moves in the market for stable debutant GOOD TOO (4) are to be noted.

PHILOS (3) secured his fourth AW success bouncing back to form with a spirited Chelmsford victory. Solid chances back up in trip. HOME AND DRY (2) is now under his last winning mark. Fitted with a first-time visor. Leading player. There is a suspicion GRAND DUCHESS OLGA (6) is slightly high in the weights. Consider each-way. Long-standing maiden DOUBLETROUBLE (5) has found the frame twice from four previous course visits.
