Longstanding maiden STAR VANTAGE (8) could have his day following a solid effort in defeat when second attempting a handicap hurdle at Southwell three days ago. Racing off the same mark. Consider. DEEP STRATO (3) finished a decent fourth over 3900m at Carlisle in December. Might have more to offer stepping significantly up in trip under 1.5kg claimer Charlie Maggs. A 1.5kg drop in the weights after finishing sixth at Ffos Las last time may see RIVER VOYAGE (2) get involved. SKIN FULL (12) is next best.

Dan Skelton does well in this sphere and his four-year-old newcomer SHAREYOURBISCUITS (8) is selected to make a winning debut. INTOSOMETHINGGOOD (3) clearly has his quirks after refusing to race on hurdling debut at Chepstow in January. Would hold major claims if bouncing back to the form of his third-place finish in a Listed jumpers flat at Cheltenham prior. SMART DECISION (1) beat WALLQUATARI (10) on hurdle debut at this venue last month. The former has since unseated at Haydock but could get firmly involved while the latter also looks likely to feature.

Two-time hurdling winner GETAWAY DRUMLEE (3) shaped nicely both fences outings. Callum Pritchard now takes off a valuable 2.5kg and he can go one spot better than when second at Fontwell in December. WILD SIDE OF LIFE (8) jumped poorly prior to falling on chase debut at Musselburgh in November. Strong in the market that day and its interesting connections are persisting over fences. RATH GAUL HILL (2) stayed on well tackling shorter to take his record in handicap chases to two from five at Ayr during April and must be respected on his belated reappearance.
