BLUE LAS (3) won a jumpers flat race at Southwell on her second start in April. Followed up comfortably under a penalty shortly afterwards and looks a potentially smart recruit to hurdling. METKAYINA (5) was a jumpers flat race winner in Ireland before finishing fourth tackling a G2 at Aintree debuting for this stable. Leading contender switching to hurdles. BARRABOOL (1) indicated promise in three jumpers flat starts and may improve on stable and hurdle debut. Jumpers flat race winner BASILETTE (2) wasn't disgraced delivering initial hurdle outing at Exeter. Place claims.

BARITUS BELLATOR (9) ran poorly at Wolverhampton last time out. Enters the equation based on a Chelmsford (1609m) fourth. Drops to a career-low rating with a promising Irish apprentice travelling over for the ride and can be considered. Previous course and distance winner SOLANNA (1) was probably unsuited by soft ground on turf most recently. Warrants attention returning to these conditions. JOHNJAY (3) can usually be relied upon to give his running and remains on a competitive mark. Course and distance winner MONOPOLISE (2) also demands respect from a career-low rating.

UPEPO (1) won twice on AW the start of this year. Down to a similar rating and could find this more suitable than when fourth tackling 2816m at Catterick recently. Chance. TORBELLINO (4) was a 2L winner over course and distance. Not sure to replicate from 2kg higher. Key player in current form. MEISTERZINGER (5) scored three times here in the first half of 2023. Clearly suited by conditions. The 509-day absence warrants concern. Market can guide as to expectations. FULLFORWARD (10) also possesses each-way claims.

BLUELIGHT BAY (1) ran better than the finishing position suggests at Southwell. Drops to a career-low mark and now adopts first-time blinkers. Warrants serious consideration. BIGBERTIEBASSETT (6) also wears first-time headgear after finishing second tackling 1608m here last time out. Major player tackling this reduced trip. ARCTICIAN (5) was a convincing course and distance winner in latest. Brings good credentials from just 1kg higher. Former course winner AL AMEEN (9) performed encouragingly attempting the journey at this venue two runs ago. Racing from a dangerous mark.
