MAGNA (2) is impossible to dismiss having completed a hat-trick with another win tackling 1200m at this track last start. She arrives at the top of her game and could prove hard to stop again. ROTOKURA BELLE (6) performed below her best when sixth attempting 1000m at Catterick beaten 5L. Capable of much better and may quickly bounce back. Represents the main danger. MIDNIGHT CALL (5) was fourth tackling track and trip defeated 4.5L most recently however her record with this journey being three wins from five starts gives her strong claims. Makes appeal. FANTASY OBSESSOR (3) was below form two runs back. Now suitably placed and cannot be discounted.

UNDERCOVER AFFAIR (6) has shown enough in two starts and was not beaten far when fourth tackling 1100m at Chester ten days ago by 2.5L. DESERT BELLE (5) broke through in style tackling 2400m at Southwell All Weather. Remains lightly raced with more improvement likely. Leading contender. She is shaping up well and could go close again. KELLY BURN (6) was sent off favourite here last time. Found only one better attempting 2400m making it two placings from three attempts this campaign. Represents the main danger. YOU GOT TO MY SOUL (4) arrives freshened since a Nottingham seventh while the Edward Greatrex booking reads well. Makes appeal. PYLEATES (3) resumes after going close here before the break and deserves plenty of thought.

NATIVE INSTINCT (1) left behind four disappointing efforts when runner-up contesting a handicap at Hamilton Park on most recent appearance. Could go one better. THIS FARH (4) only picked up one top-three effort last six attempts which was a 1L victory contesting a handicap at Leicester delivering penultimate start. Failed to follow up when fourth at the same venue nine days ago. Might bounce back. GREEN PURSUIT (5) also only placed once last six outings. Needs to improve from a fifth at Thirsk a month ago. VINCE LE PRINCE (7) cannot be discounted having produced a pair of second place finishes at Catterick prior to a latest seventh.
