LOVING PRAGUE (2) turned in a sound debut over 1250m at Durbanville when just off the pace and boxed on well for fourth in what has already proven a good form race. Expected to be in the finish here. PRAIRIE DAWN (8) also made debut over 1250m at Durbanville and after a slow start and giving away a big start found the line strongly. Should be much improved for this. SLASH 'N BURN (7) did his best work late and finished 5 lengths from the winner in fifth last start over 1000m at Durbanville, an improvement on his tenth on debut at Durbanville the run before. Heading the right way. UMZINGELI WENYATHI (5) is on a quick turnaround after a moderate fifth over 1200m at this track eight days ago. Capable of putting that recent failure behind him.

Very good race for the fillies. REET PETITE (5) is unbeaten in two runs, the latest over 1500m at Durbanville with a bit in hand. Looks suited here and expected to go close again. VIVA LA VIDA (8) has won her last three including her return over 1500m at Durbanville. Jockey Sean Veale is unbeaten from two rides while aboard and will be looking to make it three straight. STRAWBERRY THIEF (3) is also another last start winner who returned to form over 1800m at Durbanville with a determined win. At top and can run a big race again.
